

Beach Cities Orchestra Ready for Spring Concert

Polished to the last note of meticulous rehearsal, the fourth and final concert of the 1958-59 season of the Beach Cities Symphony Orchestra promises a rewarding evening on June 5, at 8:15 p.m., in the auditorium of Redondo Union High School.

Composer-Conductor Louis Palange's talent for programming produces a sound "first" in the beach cities area, with the appearance of the Manhattan Motet, accompanied by full symphony orchestra. The initial "first" was the memorable evening of professional ballet in April, 1958, when Choreographer Wilson Morelli's corps de ballet also had full symphonic accompaniment. Palange, a native Californian, master player of the woodwinds, composer and conductor, in his fourth season with the Beach Cities Symphony, has developed the 72-member orchestra to the excellence of recognition by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, Los Angeles County Music Commission, and membership in the Los Angeles County Symphony League.

ROLLING off the presses this month are "Pan American Fiesta" and "Palange's Little Italy," published by Highland

Press, and from Boosey-Hawkes, the ballet "Queen of Hearts." The Fourth Annual Youth Band Festival with several hundred players, is performing his "Jazz Rhumba" in Hollywood Bowl May 30th. This too, is being played at U.S.C., in addition to his "Shadow of a Fortress." Palange's Hollywood Panorama premiered in Burbank's Starlight Bowl, and his "Romantic Piano Concerto," dedicated to his wife, Carmelina in Cleveland. He is re-orchestrating the concerto, and eagerly anticipated is the possibility of its featured performance next season. The Sunday afternoon Band concerts in Los Angeles City and County Parks have already opened for the summer, and in these, too, Palange is actively engaged as conductor. His many affiliations include: American Federation of Musicians, Bohemians of Los Angeles, Composers and Lyricists Guild of America, Screen Composers Assn., American Society of Music Arrangers, and American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers.

FRIDAY'S concert programs Hector Berlioz' "Roman Carnival Overture," Franz Liszt's "Liebestraume," the "Double Concerto" for two violins and orchestra, by Johann Sebastian Bach, featuring orchestra members concertmaster Alex Pierce and Jack Shulman; "Pavane pour une infante defunte" by Maurice Ravel, and Anton Bruckner's "Te Deum," sung by the Manhattan Motet of thirty voices, with solo quartet and full symphony orchestra.

A reception honoring patrons and members of the Beach Cities Symphony Association will be held, following the concert.

Lomita Couples To Attend Fete

The Board of Supervisors Annual Dinner recognizing the achievement of presidents of Community Coordinating Councils will be held Wednesday evening at the Sheraton-West Hotel in Los Angeles.

Representing the Narbonne Area Coordinating Council will be Mr. and Mrs. Loman D. Carter, president, and Mr. and Mrs. John Conshafter, first vice president.

The invitational affair, which annually draws some 300 leaders from communities throughout Los Angeles County, is co-sponsored by the Federation of Community Coordinating Councils, a county-wide association of over 90 coordinating councils dedicated to the prevention of juvenile delinquency. Constant service is provided to these groups by the Department of Community Services.
